McADOO MEN SAY WILL FIGHT ALL SUMMER

PURE OIL COMPANY PICNIC SATURDAY A BIG SUCCESS

ONE THOUSAND EMPLOYES OF COMPAY ATTEND

Many Novel Features Amuse Big Crowd

Bathing Revue Was 'It'

Ball Game And Dance Also Features.

The intermittent showers Saturday failed to put a damper on the Pure Oil picnic held at the Reunion Grounds Saturday, June 21st. Starting with the ball game between the office team of the Pure Oil Company at Tulsa and the Pure Oil Company team from the McKie lease at Powell and ending with a dance at the Club house at the Reunion Grounds the picnic was a big success.

The ball game which was played at League Park ended 8-3 in favor of the local boys. The game was close until the last half of the eighth when with the McKie team leading 3-2 the Tulsa defense blew up and the local Pure Oilers scored 5 runs. A good sized crowd witnessed the game which was marked by good-natured rooting for both teams.

Following the ball game the crowd journeyed to the Reunion Grounds the remainder of the day was spent. In the neighborhood of a thousand of the Pure Oil Company employes, their families and friends were present to enjoy the barbecue dinner furnished by the Company. The dinner was preceded by an address of welcome by Mayor Watson.

The afternoon was taken up by various races and contests. Swimming races, diving contests, tug of war, egg race and a pie eating contest furnished interest and amusement throughout the afternoon. The big event of the afternoon however, was the bathing girls revue. This event had been looked forward to all week and competition for a place as one of the judges was unusually keen. The chagrin of the judges was only surpassed by the laughter of the assembled audience, when eleven "piccannies" of all shades of darkness from dusk to midnight, arrayed in many colored one piece bathing suits and carrying Japanese parasols, promenaded the walk from the Club House to the Bath House Prizes for the winner of each event were provided by the commitee in charge of the entertainment.

The closing event of the day following the "Battle Royal" in which "Fast Blac" one of Mexia's colored gentry established his supremacy over the other four contestants, was the dance at the Club House. Music was furnished by the Elks Orchestra and the dancing was from nine till twelve. The floor was crowded from start to finish and a good time was certainly had by all.

This was first annual picnic under the management of the Pure Oil Company and it was pronounced such a success that the employees are all looking forward to its repetition next year.

ELECTRICAL ARCH FUND HUGHES PARK GROWS

June 23, 1924.

Mr. W. K. Boyd,
News Publishing Company,
Mexia, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I take great pleasure in attaching herewith my check in the sum of ten dollars to be applied to the fund which you are raising for the purpose of building a memorial arch at the entrance to Hughes Park.

The generosity and public spiritedness of Mr. Jessie Hughes and family is unprecedented in the annals of city building.

In giving this beautiful park and equipment to Mexia they have placed within the reach all Mexia's children, and generations yet unborn advantages for healthful and joyous recreation and this is a splendid example of unselfishness and loyalty born of love for the city they have adopted as their home.

It is therefore not only proper but eminently fitting that the citizens of Mexia show their appreciation by the erection of an entrance arch that for permanence in construction and beauty of design will be in keeping with beautiful grounds presented by Mr. Hughes.

CROWD GREETS DR. YOUNG SUNDAY NIGHT

"Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon" were the words of the text from Isaiah, which constituted the heart of Dr. Young's message to a large audience Sunday night at the Revival at the Central Presbyterian church. Practically every available bench and chair in the house was filled before the sermon began. The singing was enthusiastic. "There is power, power wonder working power in the blood of the Lamb" was the rousing chorus sung before the sermon. Mr. Croxton sang a negro spiritual so typical of the deep religious convictions of the worship of the earnest colored people, the selections being, "Deep River."

Dr. Young announced as his subject for Monday night "The Lion in the Way." A large delegation is expected from Wortham for Monday night. Wednesday night Teague is sending a delegation. At the Sunday night service delegations were present from many of the nearby towns and were heartily welcomed.

Dr. Young cited the fact that all men are seekers. In the days of the Covered Wagon they sought gold. He said men sought silver, health. But he said men were never satisfied until they found Christ. Like the man tossing up the valuable diamond on the deck of a vessel until in his carelessness he dropped it into the sea to be lost forever, he said that men had been playing with life and acting as if they were going to live a thousand years and could do as they pleased. But he said such was not the case. He told how Sam Jones was sitting in the hotel one day talking with his brother, apparently in good health. He looked at him and he was gone in an instant of time.

The text also pointed out that the Lord must be sought while he may be found. Dr. Young said that there was a danger line in a man's life. When this was crossed he could never be reached for God again because he had become callous to the appeal and had lost the desire. God himself said, "Ephraim is joined to his idols, let him alone." He said that the Lord declared to the man who for thirty years was impure and had become set in impure character to let him alone. It was God's death knell to men and women who had finally turned away from Him. Dr. Young said there were times when

AMERICAN WINS FIRST GAME TENNIS

WIMBLEDON, England, June 23.—Honored by opening the Wimbledon tennis championships on the famous center court before a crowd of 8,000 today, Vincent Richards of New York overwhelmed O. E. Park of New Zealand winning in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0.

Only two games went to deuce, Richards making his opponent a present of the games he lost.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 23.—It was youth's day at Wimbledon, with young "Vinnie" Richards of New York, the popular favorite in the men's singles, and plaudits of the crowd as play began in the championship tennis tournament today.

Suzanne Lenglen was as almost unpopular as Miss Wills was a favorite with the spectators, but the French girl was the choice over the American champion to win the women's singles.

The weather was fair and the courts fast as play started.

Some Folks Are Never Satisfied

BALBOA, C. Z., June 23.—The lady, who, when rescued from a ship wreck and taken aboard a freighter demanded a suite on the latter because she had paid for one on the wrecked steamer, furnished perhaps the most amusement to "survivors" of the Pacific Mail liner, Columbia, Los Angeles to New York, which went aground Saturday on Cuna, Island, 300 miles from here.

The story was brought here by 97 passengers of the grounded liner when the transport Chaumont arrived. The Chaumont and two other vessels "rescued" the Columbia's passengers. There were no casualties.

Klan Issue About To Overshadow All Other Questions

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, WALDORF HOTEL, NEW YORK, June 23.—In the bitter struggle over the Klan issue, candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination have been submerged to second place in the minds of leaders and delegates on the day before the convention convenes.

So fierce has become the battle between the forces contending for and against an anti-klan plank in the Democratic platform that it was evident that the question must be settled before the party standard bearer can be picked.

Even the leading candidates only come in for incidental mention in the heated discussions of the Klan issue. McAdoo, Smith, Underwood, Cox, Davis—all are referred to primarily with regard to their position on the Klan and other issues.

The studied attempt of party leaders to make "clean government" the main issue of the coming campaign, has been all but thwarted. The report of the senatorial group which will form the basis for a plank denouncing the Republican administration was shoved into an inferior position along with the League of Nations, prohibition and other controvertial issues.

Leadership in the fight over the Klan issue, first raised by George E. Brennan, Democratic boss of Chicago, to check the candidacy of William G. McAdoo, today passed to Edward H. Moore, of Ohio, manager of the 1920 campaign for James M. Cox. Moore claims he already has 590 delegates pledged to support a plank denouncing the Klan by name in vigorous terms.

CALIFORNIA MEN ENLISTED FOR THE WAR

Ku Klux Klan Is Big Issue In Sight

Bryan' Is' For McAdoo.

Says Will Be Greatest Convention Ever.

NEW YORK, June 23.—In a speech to 200 delegates from California William G. McAdoo appealed to his followers to "stick to the last ballot." His appeal brought cheers from the crowd and there were cries of "we're here to fight all summer."

McAdoo declared: "I know you are here not to betray but to execute your trust and that victory is assured."

A survey of the pre-convention situation shows that McAdoo has 550 delegates.

The Klan question is becoming more and more bitter. Ed Moore of Ohio, who led he fight for Cox in 1920, is the leader of a faction wanting an anti-Klan plank in the platform, which condemns any organization that "undertakes to destroy free political action and fosters racial and religious hatreds, and pledges the democratic party to "oppose the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization which undertakes to control or interfere with free political action or due process of law."

William Jennings Bryan, who predicts the "greatest national convention in the party's history," is lined with McAdoo in the latter's fight to retain the leadership.

Underwood announced that he had prepared a resolution specifically naming the Klan and denouncing its methods. He is the first of the candidates to do so.

The department made a ready response and put out the fire with chemical fire extinguisher with apparently no damage much to the car. Mrs. White stated there was no one there but her daughter, Mrs. Rust, and heself and the department was immediately called upon.

Dawn-Twilight Flight N. Y. To Frisco Being Done By Lieut Maughan Today

HOPPED OFF ON TIME

MITCHELL FIELD, New York, June 23.—Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan took off at 3:59 a. m. today in his third attempt to fly from New York to San Francisco between dawn and dusk.

The first rosy streaks of a warm, clear June day were just reddening the East when the army flyer shouted, "contact." There was a roar from the exhaust of his big Curtis plane and the pilot was off on his third attempt to span the continent dawn to dusk.

Maughan's schedule calls for stops at Dayton, St. Joseph, Mo., Cheyenne and Salduro, Utah, for fuel and water.

The distance from Mitchell Field to Crissey Field, San Francisio, is 2,670 miles, and to make the flight in 19 hours, 19 minutes of daylight, the aviator must average 165 miles.

Passes Over Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 23.—Lieut. Russell L. Maughan passed over Indianapolis 8 o'clock this morning on his dawn to dusk flight across the continent.

His Curtis Pursuit plane was visible for only a moment as it shot across Indianapolis and disappeared in the west.

First Stop—Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio, June 23.—Lieut. Russell L. Maughan, completed the first leg of his dawn-to-dusk transcontinental flight today, arriving here from Mitchell Field, New York, at 7:55 a. m. Eastern standard time (unofficial.

A broken gasoline line delayed his taking off for St. Joseph, Mo., the next stop in the flight.

Field mechanics said they believed they would be able to repair the line so that the deday would not defeat Maughan's attempt to span the continent before dusk.

"I experienced no mechanical difficulties," Maughan said.

Off Again—Hour Late

DAYTON, Ohio, June 23.—After approximately one hour's delay while mechanics repaired a broken gas line on his Curtis pursuit plane, Lieut. Russell L. Maughan hopped off from McCook Field at 8:15 a. m. today on the second leg of his flight across the continent with the sun.

Making Up Time

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 23.—Lieut. Maughan took off at 11:37 for Cheyenne. He arrived at 10:53, only 23 minutes behind schedule. He appeared weary but confident of making a successful flight.

Adair Writes Interesting Letter While Train Speeds, Offers To Chaperon Texas

By A. GARLAND ADAIR

ON BOARD THE TEXAS McADOO SPECIAL, Saturday, June 21.—It's still Eastward, Ho!

(By the time this reaches Mexia, however, the delegation will be in the Convention City. A Garland Adair, representing the Mexia Daily News, one of the few papers in Texas to have a special correspondent present, will be quartered at the hotel Imperial. Any citizen of Mexia or of the Sixth Congressional district of Texas who want seats in the convention are urged to see Mr. Adair, who will be glad to help out all he can. Also, if any citizen of the home communities have friends who are in New York, if they are informed to apply for assistance to members of the Texas party at the Hotel McAlpin, they should not have any great trouble gaining entrance.)—Ed. Note.

We are leaving scenes along the Wabash and with the memory of new mown hay in our nostrils are moving on to new fields of real conquest. Just what the results will be future historians will have to chronicle.

Members of the McAdoo special from Texas are still enthusiastic for their choice for the Presidential nomination, but it don't look much like a McAdoo victory this early and this near the scene of the enemy. Of course, the Texas delegates are tied and will stand "for McAdoo" until the motion is made to make it unanimous for whatever be the choice. Not everybody will vote to make it unanimous, however, especially if a wet nominee is determined upon as favorite.

Heavy rains fell along the line of travel of the Texas train Friday afternoon and evening. Whether that was an indication of the kind of convention that the Democrats are going to attend cannot be said. At any rate, from newspapers of this section, picked up along the route there is a mighty movement to return to "the good old days of saloon misrule." Of course a lot of it is propaganda and the Republican scouts are trying to inject all the division possible in the ranks of the Democratic party. Republicans are great designers and schemers and keep a hand on the public pulse on many issues. They know that if they can get the Democrats to go wet, after they went dry, that the majority of citizens will favor their party and their candidate under the circumstances.

A. G. ADAIR WRITES INTERESTING LETTER

The Convention is to meet in the home of Tammany Hall. Tammany has long controlled the politics of the City of New York but has not been so successful in the State. There was a time, when there was no West and South of Power that Tammany was a formidable part of the Democratic political leadership of these United States. It is not feared as a dominant factor at the Convention but will be heard and seen nevertheless.

In 1876 the hosts of Democracy gathered to purge the nation from grafters who occupied exalted positions in the land. This time the great convention is to consider the same subject. In 1876, after Republican misrule, the Republicans themselves pointed the finger of rebuke and scorn at those guilty of selling out for self and sent some of them to prison. The situation is more alarming now, however, for the Republicans are shielding those guilty of using a public trust to advance their own interests. The condemnation of the democrats is hurled at Congressmen, Senators, Ministers and Members of the President's cabinet while the party of which these are members is permitting them to go unpunished and yet honored.

Developments within the next few days at Madison Square are expected to reveal that the Democrats are of the same mind as the fallen Chieftan, Woodrow Wilson. Woodrow Wilson was given a mighty ovation in 1920 at San Francisco. He will be given a greater one in 1924 at New York. From the very opening session, the principles that he stood for will be present with growing power.

As New York City is approached there is a very obvious difference between this delegation from the one that attended the San Francisco meeting. It is an almost entirely new delegation. Only a few faces familiar in Texas politics at that time are present on this train. The San Francisco special carried a distinguished party of venerable men who had rendered Texas and the Nation valiant service in the past. The New York bound train carries many practically unknown members of the party who are to render valiant service in the future. Apparently there are no Has Beens here but plenty of To Be's. That is they will be To Be's, maybe.

The most rabid anti-Klan talk that I have ever heard has been made on this train. There talks have not been whispered but of the open kind. It seems that there are more against the Klan on the train than there are for the Klan, if noise counts.

In 1920 a poll was taken of the stand of the delegates on the Governor's race. This time there has been no such poll taken, but the real dope is that Felix D. Robertson is far in the lead.

In 1920, the Governor of Texas, William P. Hobby, was on the train as a delegate. This time the Governor of Texas has gone ahead to the Convention city, having been made a delegate but refused to accept.

In 1920 there was a Lone Star flag on the train and there was a big hullaboo of folks for McAdoo. All along the route his friends greeted and cheered the McAdoo Special. This time the flag was forgotten but one will be obtained from the New York Texas club in New York and not a single party has met the train to cheer for McAdoo and to encourage his election.

In 1920 the train went west thru a land of hospitality and friends. This time the train is going to the cold and effete East where the line up is inimical to the views of Texans on the delegation.

GUSHERS MAKE IT THREE STRAIGHT FROM SURGEONS

MEXIA TAKES A PITCHERS BATTLE FROM TEMPLE 3-2

By HECK

One of the greatest pitching duels ever staged at Nowlin park was handed the fans Sunday when Rankin Johnson and Jeffries locked horns in a battle that went twelve rounds before Rankin was downed by two rank errors by Lacy and McElwee and to Rankin I want to hand the palm for pitching one of the best games I have ever seen and I have lamped a plenty. Jeffries pitched great ball also and deserved to win and I am not taking any laurels away from him by what I say of Rankin, but Jeff received support from his mates that was of the most brilliant sort while the error column tells much of what Rankin was up against. Jeff had the Surgeons on his hip and no mistake and Rankin had the Gushers eating out of his hand nearly all the way. Well, anyhow the Gushers won and the crew of Skipper Fowlkes deserves all the good things that can be said of them. Mexia tallied their first runs in the third frame when Jefferies crossed up the league and slammed a double down the third base line. Roy Storey dropped Geppert's fly after a nice run but he should have caught it in his hip pocket. Fowlkes sacrificed. Butler popped to McElwee and two were down when Ned Seely singled to center scoring the Squib and Jeff. The Surgeon annexed their only two counters in the fifth after two were out on an infield hit by Rich and doubles by Lacy and Johnson. The game rocked along with the count knotted and everybody settled down to watch a long endurance contest between two crack flingers who refused to weaken. The Surgeons threatened in the seventh when Leedy ran into right field and snagged Wren's short fly retiring the side and in the twelfth Lacy singled and was sacrificed to second by Johnson and it again looked tough but Bryan made two great catches of drives from the bats of Lance and Wren and no further damage resulted. The Gushers had many chances to score but Johnson pitched about the smartest ball in the pinches that one will see in many a day. In the second frame Seely and Jones singled in succession to open the round and we all expected the fireworks to begin right pronto when Bryan sacrificed both runners into scoring position. Harding hit a weak fly to right and Leedy took three cuts at three outside the bags with but one out but McElwee took Geppert's grounder and threw Harding out at the plate and Fowkles skied to Wren. Just to show us that he was getting right, Johnson whiffed Jones, Bryan and Harding in succession in the eighth and fanned seven of nine strikeouts in the last four innings. Geppert opened the twelfth with a single to left. Fowlkes laid down a perfect bunt and Lacy pegged wild to first pulling McElwee off the bag. Butler hunted down the third base line and Johnson made a great play to first and McElwee dropped the ball. Seely popped out to McElwee and the game should have been over but for boots. Ted Jones then drove a long fly to Wren and the Squib beat the throw to the plate for the winning tally. The game was played in two hours flat which shows that umps Price kept the clubs hustling and the whole twelve rounds were played without a question on any decision. The Gushers handled fift-eight of their fifty-nine chances perfectly. Harding getting the only boot when he attempted a one handed catch of Geppert's assist on McElwee's grounder. Leedy took Rich's grounder following the boot and completed a fast double play to Harding. Geppert, Leed, Jones and Jeffries handled their twenty-one assists perfectly and many were of the most brilliant sort while Bryan did a real days work in center.

YOU CANNOT BE TOO PARTICULAR

HOUSTON, Texas, June 23.—Miss Eunice Heavenhill, assistant bacteriologist in the city laboratory, has broken the news to many persons bitten by dogs that they would have to take the Pasteur treatment.

Now she's trying her "own medicine."

As she was examining the head of a small dog that had bitten some persons, she scratched her hand on a tooth. Examination revealed that the dog was mad.

T. A. GOSSIP

By HECK

The joyful news to the fans is that Sanders will leave the hospital in a few days and will be seen on the mound again by the middle of July and it is hoped that the Gushers will be up there among top notchers so Sandy can step in help them over the hill.

Tiner is due to hit the hill most any day now and he has whispered it to me that his arm is "ken as a briar." With Tiner taking his turn on the mound and in anywhere near his condition and effectiveness of last season the Gushers will be hard to head in race for the second section flag.

Tiner was one of the most effective pitchers in the league last season and along with Carl Hill was probably the most worked out of turn pitcher in the loop—he and Carl were worked overtime by Hub and it had much to do with us losing the rag.

Tiner now has a new pair of shoes a brand new seersucker suit, plenty of socks N'everything and is ready to take the hill and put the Gushers out in front for the second half.

Looks like there is a shake up coming in the Gusher line up and while I know pretty well just where it will be I am not yet ready to tip it to you fans but you can look for at least two and maybe three new players in the lineup this week.

As a team the Gushers are not hitting enough to win games that the pitchers dotheir part in and while it is the pitcher part of the game to hold the opposition, still the balance of the club must do their share by giving the pitcher runs to work on and at this stage of the game the Gushers are not a run getting club and has too many runners stranded on the sacks waiting for the pinch knock to send them to the cash register.

Ned Seely carries the wallop of the club but he must not be expected to sock a homer every day or even every few days as home runs are scarce articles and while Ned will get many during the season the brunt of the Gusher attack should not be left on his shoulders.

Leedy looks like he has been ready to start his long distance hitting for several days but Gus can't seem to get into gear with his war club and is also "fishing" at a high and outsidie curves that makes him look bad at times. The troubles with Gus is that he is trying too hard to break his slump and thus falls an easy victim of a smart pitcher—and believe me there are several smart pitchers in this league today.

This is strictly a pitchers league this season and there have been many smart games turned in and it will get better from now on and the club that can get afew runs over the pan for their pitchers will be the club to grab the rag.

I think the Texas ssociation has three really smart pitchers and by that I mean thre pitchers that win by sheer pitching ability by the use of their head besides something to hang their hat on.

I consider Rankin Johnson, Carl Hill and Mike Schmid as the three really smart pitchers of the circuit—pitchers who pitch every ball with a purpose and pitchers who MAKE the batter hit the ball that they intend for them to hit.

A well known umpire of this loop told me a while back that Carl Hill pitched the best game he had ever seen a short time ago and that Carl just naturally made his opponents hit the ball he wanted them to hit and beat them easily.

I don't know how many of you fans nticed it but the game that Rankin Johnson pitched Sunday against Jeffries was a masterly pitched game and I believe one of the best I have ever seen. Johnson is a really smart pitcher and like Carl Hill gets the fewest runs of any pitcher in the league to work on and must therefore pitch his best every inch of the way. A small piece of mud, a torn seam, a bruised cover or most any little thing on the ball that the average fan does not even notice much less think of means much to Carl and Rankin and they use them to perfection and it is perfectly within the rights of a pitcher—especially if he is smart enough to know tohse things.

How many times have you seen Carl deliver a perfect ball for the opposing batsman to bunt when it is just what the batsman wants to do? How many times have you noticed that Carl either goes to the right or the left of the box and handles the bunt and cuts down the advance runner and thus break up the sacrifice game? How many of you fans have ever got the idea that Carl "pitched" the ball so that the batter would bunt just where Carl wanted him to bunt so Carl could cover the play and get the advance runner? This is the big reason why Carl has anywhere from eight to as high as fourteen assists a game.

Johnson and Schmid are using their heads the same as Carl and it is worth the price of the game just to watch a battle of wits between these pitchers and errors invariably have much to do with any of these getting beat.

Roy Storey is not setting the league afire with his work in the out field and during the series just closed with Temple here he booted five plays in center field and every boot had something to do with putting Gusher runs over the pan. Maybe Roy Roy can hit but he sure looks bad in the field.

Squib Geppert beat Tiner in their sensational pool tournament at the Elks Club and now Willie Hoppe will have to get a new teacher since Tiner has lost the championship belt.

GRADUATE NURSE TELLS HOW TANLAC HELPED MANY OF HER PATIENTS

SEATTLE NURSE IS FIRM BELIEVER IN TANLAC AND RECOMMENDS IT.

"From my long experience as a professional nurse, I do not hesitate to say I consider Tanlac the most efficient and natural stomach medicine and tonic to be had. It is undoubtedly nature's most perfect remedy," is the far-reaching statement given out for publication, recently, by Mrs. I. A. Borden, 425 Pontius Ave., Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the National Temperence Hospital, Chicago.

"I have used Tanlac exclusively for seven years in the treatment of my charity patients," said Mrs. Borden, "and my experience has been that for keeping the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning properly, and for toning up the system in general, it has no equal.

"About a year ago I had a lady patient who could not keep a thing on her stomach fifteen minutes, not even water. I prevailed on her to try Tanlac and after the sixth bottle she could eat absolutely anything she wanted without the slightest bad after-effects.

"I had another patient who simply could not eat. I got him started on Tanlac and by the time he finished three bottle he was eating ravenously and able to work.

"These two instances that are typical of the wonderful merits of the medicine. My confidence in Tanlac is unlimited."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 40 million bottles sold.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

No Wet Candidate for the South

A few months ago the editor of the Alabama Christian Advocate positively declared that he would not support a "wet" candidate for President even if he should be from his own state. Recently the editor of the Baptist Advance announced that he would not support a "wet" presidential candidate; and now comes the editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate with the following clear-cut statement:

"There is a thoroughly organized, well financed plan to foist upon the Democratic party a presidential candidate who is pronouncedly 'wet' in his attitude toward the Eighteenth Amendment—one who, at the very least, will favor a modification of the Volstead Law to permit the sale of light wines and beer. We have not the slightest personal interest in the political fortunes of any man who has been suggested for the presidency, but we have a tremendous interest in the moral issues that are at stake in the campaign. If the politicians who are so indiscriminately trying to secure the vote of certain sections of the North and the East by promoting a 'wet' candidate are successful in their efforts, they may get those votes, but we undertake to say that in so doing they will smash the 'Solid South' to smithereens. The time has passed when a party shibboleth will induce intelligent men and women to vote against their deepest moral convictions—and the South is more solid in its support of Prohibition than it is in its adherence to a party simply for party's sake. Make Prohibition the issue and bring out your 'wet' candidate, gentlemen—and then watch him go down in the worst defeat ever administered in a presidential campaign."

These declarations are not simply the personal sentiments of these editors; but represent the views of thousands of the best people of the South. The best way to break up the 'Solid South' would be for the Democrats to nominate for the presidency a man whose record allied him with the 'wets'".—The Arkansas Methodist.

An exchange tells of a young lady of that town who had tired of a certain young man's calls and fearing he would never quit, gave him a little problem to solve. She handed him a pencil and paper and told him to make a row of eleven ciphers, then to make a perpendicular line downward at the right of the first, fifth and tenth ciphers and upward at the right of the fourth, seventh and eighth ciphers, and read. After he had completed the task he surveyed it for a minute, and then without a word of explanation or apology, suddenly departed from the house and grounds. Work it out.

That politics makes strange bedfellows is shown by the report that comes from Chicago that a negro lawyer is to be the Democratic candidate for congress from the first district.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

PLAYING THE BULLY

Denison Herald.

Action of Great Britain in severing diplomatic relations with Mexico because of the latter government's refusal to rescind its order expelling Cummins, British agent, smacks of the tactics of a bully. Its course is in thorough keeping with its reputation for riding roughshod over smaller governments and forcing them to shape their policies and courses in accordance with British will.

Whether Cummins had committed the offenses charged against him by the Obregon government or not, the fact that he was and is persona non grata to the government to which he is the accredited representative is all-sufficient for his recall. It is international law and has never been questioned or attempt made to disregard it until Great Britain undertook to do so in this instance.

While no statement to that effect was ever made so far as our information goes, the impression was general that recognition of Mexico by Great Britain would follow similar action on part of the States government. Several months have elapsed since relations were resumed between the two western republics through appointment of ambassadors, but Great Britain has made no move in that direction. The inference is that Mr. Cummins in his capacity of British agent is more or less responsible.

That may be one of the reasons that prompted the Obregon regime to order his expulsion. The charge is made that the agent made certain statements to his government that were wholly untrue and had committed other improprieties out of harmony with the purposes and objects of his mission to a friendly nation. In view of this it was indicated to the MacDonald government that continuance of Cummins as the British agent was not agreeable and his recall would make for a better understanding between the two governments.

But Mr. Macdonald says to Mexico, "If you are unwilling to put up with whom we send as our representatives, we will have naught to do with your government." If John Bull plays in Mexico's backyard, he is not only to be permitted to name the game but announce the rules, as well. But President Obregon has demonstrated that even though the nation over which he presides is a small one and badly crippled, it has a conception and appreciation of the dignity that goes with it and has the courage to assert its rights despite the British bulldog's growl.

The net indebtedness (funded and floating debt less sinking fund assets) of Galveston on June 30, 1923 was $4,631,011, or $99.59 per capita. In 1922 the per capita debt was $96.95, and in 1918, $123.74.

Assessed Valuations and Tax Levies.

For 1923 the assessed valuation of property in Galveston subject to ad valorem taxes for city corporation was $55,206,804. The levy for all purposes for 1923 was $1,857,333, of which $1,034,040, of 55.7 per cent was levied for the city corporation; $338,767 or 18.0 per cent, for the state; and $489,526, or 26.4 per cent for the county. The per capita tax levy for city, state and county was $39.94.

FIREPROOF GYM BUILDING FOR A&M COLLEGE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, June 23.—Contract for a modern fireproof gymnasium to provide basketball courts, facilities for corrective physical training, officers for the athletics staff and pressing rooms for all athletes of the A. & M. College of Texas has been let to the Johnson Construction Company of Waco and work will begin next week, James Sullivan, business manager of athletics has announced. With the accommodations that it will afford, A. & M. athletes will have opportunities for physical training and athletic competition not surpassed by the students of any other institution.

The walls of the building will be of brick, the roof of concrete and steel and the courts will have a maple floor. Seating stands will also be of concrete and will accommodate 3000. To supplement this capacity several hundred temporary seats can be provided for the more important games. Provision is also in the plans of the building for a later construction of balconies that will accommodate 2000 more persons.

Equipment will be added to the building for carrying out the enlarged program of physical training which has been charged to the newly organized department of physical education of which H. H. Hoge, former assistant coach has been made head. Compulsory physical training has been included in the A. & M. scheme of education for a number of years but the necessary gymnasium facilities have been lacking to enable the greatest effectiveness.

The new building will be erected on the site of the frame shack that has served as a gymnasium for many years. Professor I. B. LaRoche is the architect of the structure. It will be officially known as the Athletic Field House.

NOTICE.

Sealed bids will be received up to 7 o'clock p. m. of July 1st, 1924 by the City of Mexia for the paving of alleys in said city.

Noted Specialist Tells Smokers To Beware of Cancer

By H. V. MARTIN,
International News Service Special Correspondent

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 19.—If you are smoking twenty or more cigarettes a day—

Or ten or twelve cigars—

BEWARE

Carcinoma of the stomach will get you, if you don't watch out!

There is more Carcinoma(cancer) of the stomach amoung men than women, remarks Dr. Joseph L. DeCourcy Cincinnati specialist. This statement, he said, was proved by statistics compiled by leading physicians and surgeons in Europe and America.

"The reason for this," he announced, "is that the men frequently use nicotine to excess. Once in a great while we hear of a woman who does likewise, but, so far, the vast majority of the ladies are just playing around with ciragettes, trying to acquire a taste, so to speak, like a man eating olives. They are in no innate danger from this form of cancer.

"Smoking and chewing tobacco, in moderation, will not hurt anyone," continued Dr. DeCourcey. "But when a fellow burns up a pack of cigarettes every day and another reduces about a dozen cigars to 'butts,—watch out! The time is coming when he will be on his back in a hospital."

When Surgery Is Needed

In deep seated cancer, as in the stomach, surgery, according to Dr. DeCourcy, is the only cure. He discourges the use of radium in such cases, declaring there is danger of it destroying the glands in the stomach.

"I believe that radium and the X-ray are valuable in treating ulcers and cancers that the not deep-seated," he says. The treatment of cancer in general is advancing: we now have sufficient implements at hand to attack cancer of any type in any locality.

"Radium is of use in carcinoma of the crevix, glandular carcinoma of the inoperable type, etc. In the treatment of skin cancer, the post-operative treatment of breast carcinoma and so on, X-ray thereby is of decided value.

"These two implements, however, must still be considered as adjuncts to surgery. Enough time has now elapsed to have decided their valuation in cancerous conditions. That they are of decided value when used with precision, and judgement cannot be denied, yet, how often is their use abused both to the detriment of the patient and the medical profession as a whole.

Radium Endangers Glands

"Surgery, I repeat, still stands foremost in the treatment of carcinoma of the stomach. Fortunately a large percentage of stomach cancers occur close to the movable pyloric end. Were this not the case the mortality of stomach operation would be prohibitive. Thelymphatics are also grouped about the stomach in such a way as to make their complete removal comparatively easy. I don't believe that even the strongest advocates of radium or the Roentgen rays would consider their use prior to surgery in operable carcinoma of the stomach. Damage to the adrenals, pancreas and various glands is apt to result from their use."

President Ulysses S. Grant's death was due to cancer of the tongue, brought on by over-indulgence in big black cigars, declares the specialist. "The human body," Dr. DeCourcey stated, absorbs nicotine like a sponge."

Smokers should take a Turkish bath and then observe the nicotine coming out of the skin, he said.

"Maybe that'll teach them to go slow on tobacco," Dr. DeCourcey observed.

Kindergarten And Grade Work Being Taught Texas U.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 23.—Expert demonstration in kindergarten and grade teaching is being done in connection with summer school work at the University of Texas during the first six weeks. Select groups of Austin children have been enrolled in these demonstration classes, and the observation work supplements the courses given in theory. The best demonstration teachers obtainable have been secured for this work, which counts as credit on University degrees.

Miss Mary King Drew, supervisor of the Dallas kindergarten normal school, is both lecturer and demonstrator in this department. The enrollment in the first grade numbers 20, with 125 teachers taking the theory course. Mrs. T. W. Robertson, teacher in the Waco public schools, gives the demonstrations. Miss Lorene Patty, also from the Waco schools gives the demonstration work in the second and third grades, with 24 pupils enrolled. Miss Nina Glass, principal of the Sanger Avenue School, Waco, gives the theory lectures for all three years' work.

Theory in the junior school, composed of the sixth, seventh and eight grades is given by Walter D. Cocking, director of junior education, San Antonio. Merrill Bishop, director of English studies, San Anotoio junior high schools; Miss Stella Q. Smith, teacher of mathematics in Ralph Waldo Emerson Junior high school, San Antonio, and John Bennett Watkins, teacher of science, senior high school, Austin, are doing the demonstration work in the junior school, with an average enrollment of 24 in each grade. Big Crowd Greets Dr. Young Sunday

God was nearer than others. In times of sorrow. He related how as a child he came home one day and found his three little brothers sick with carlet Fever. Their throats were all swelled. He helped his mother care for them. One day when he looked at the smallest little fellow he was gone. He went out under the stars to talk to God. Never before had God seemed so near. And so had it been in the life of many men and women in the time of sorrow. Then the preacher said that in times of revival such as now in Mexia, the Lord was near. He said Jesus was very near. He could almo t see Him walking up and down the aisles of the church.

White man forgives a few times God's frogiveness and mercy was marvelous. Infinity could not measure its vastness, he said. But he declared that the man or woman who left the pathway and wandered far away from God like the p odigal must like this prodigal son, when they hit bottom and came to themselves come back every step of the way they had wandered away. God stood always ready and willing to receive them and forgive in mercy but they must come back. The saddest part, the evangelist declared, was that men and women waited until they hit bottom. Until their self respect was gone, their friends gone, their health gone, to come to themselves and start back to God.

When Dr. Young asked for response almost everyone in the house stood as desiring definitely to move nearer to God. The following is the copy of the decision card to be used in the meeting during the remainder of the week, giving each person an opportunity to make some definite decision for Christ. The card has the following three propo itions:

A. I confess my sins and accept Christ as my Savior.

B. I rededicate my life to Christ.

C. I desire to unite with the (name of church preferred to be filled in) Church.

At the morning theater meeting a large gathering of people heard Dr. Young preach on the theme, "Christian Certainties." He declared that, All were sinners, all ought not to have sinned, all could receive pardon and salvation in Christ Je us, these were great Christian Certainties.

Rev. Joe Jeffers, pastor of the First Baptist church, will sing a solo tonight at the service at the church. Mr. Croxton who was called home on account of the death of his wife's father will return in time to take charge of the singing Tuesday morning at the Palace Theater. Rev. Aubrey will lead the singing tonight.

Roy Flynn returned from Waxahachie on the noon train today. Mrs. Flynn and her daughter, Dorothy will remain for several days visit withe her mother.

New Open Champ Won Despite Strain

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 18—A hippocket size "pro" is our new open golf champ.

But what little Cyril Walker of Englewood, N. J., lacks in physique he makes up in gameness.

Few golfers ever achieved the open title under a mental handicap such as the diminutive star overcame.

One of a field of 84 crack professionals and amateurs who met in championship play over the long and difficult course at Oakland Hills in June, Walker drew a late starting time for the closing day's play.

As a result, throughout the entire nine holes of his round, he was subjected to a handicap which has beaten many a famous golfer. He knew just what he had to beat.

Every time Walker was in trouble, he had to figure:

"Jones is in with 300 and I've played so and so and if I miss this and take a par four on the next," etc.

The gallery was counting, too, with every stroke.

But little Walker plugged right ahead. A day before the tournament started, few had figured him as a strong contender. At the end of the first day's play he was up with the leaders, but it wasn't until the end of his morning round on the closing day that New Jersey "pro" loomed up as the darkest of dark horses, threatening Bobby Jones' title.

Walker's last nine holes were played with consummate courage, but there was one shot that sticks out, and which will go down in golfing history.

The sixteenth hole at Oakland Hills is a terror. It was the bane of existence to a majority of the field this year, and at the bottom of the water hazard which traps many a second shot lies a ball of Walter Hagen's, marking the spot where Hagen cracked and threw away his chances.

No. 16 is a nasty water hole, the hazard coming on the second shot. A long drive and a second shot equally long are necessary to effect a par four.

Walker had an advantage of one stroke over Jones at this point. Par golf would bring him in victor.

His drive was off to the right, badly placed. There was the green, with the treacherous water hazard intervening, a high wind whistling across the fairway. To the right of the green were some bunkers, to which Walker could play, chancing a five, and making of his stroke advantage, rather than risk six or seven from a sunken ball.

The new champion hesitated, fiddled with a mid-iron, then with a driving iron. Finally he set himself and played his shot straight for the pin. it soared over the yawning water and rolled and rolled, right up to the cup, stopping just eight feet short. Walker said never a word, sank the putt for a three and put the title in his pocket right then and there.

It is always a source of satisfaction to professionals when a "pro" takes the open title. It means so much money to him, a year's occupation as an exhibition player and other material advantages, whereas to an amateur it brings a little glory.

However, no amateur ever won the title twice in succession. Ouimet tried, Travers tried, Chick Evans tried Jones, finishing second, came closer than any of them.

This was Walker's first title. He was 23rd in last year's open, with a card of 314. In the professional golfers' championship that year he was eliminated by Jim Barnes, 8 to 6, in the third round.

Patterson's Ads Are Read In Groveton, Tex.

As further evidence that you can never tell who is reading your ads, we reproduce a letter to L. S. Patterson from Groveton, Texas, a sister town 100 miles southwest of Mexia, and which reads:

Groveton, Texas.
June 18, 1924.

Mr. L. S. Patterson,
Mexia, Texas.
Dear Pat:

In response to the suggestion in your ad I write you. The picture is fine. It must have been made in the hey-day of your young manhood, about the time of your promotion of the Opera Dodo and other amateur theatricals; when you advocated the use of the old time side saddles by ladies; when you wrote poetry and had the poems bound in leather at a trifling cost by the Roy Crofterrs and presented the treasure to the subject of your lovesick-dreams; about the time you played Beau Brummel to the teachers of your home town and fair and froticsome maids of La Grange.

The advertising is good. In my humble opinion you could play up the jewelry business a little more with good effect and without loss of dignity to the advertising. I believe an advertising expert would approve of your method and could offer very little criticism. They would at least deal more gently with it than the above mentioned poems were dealt with in the hands of your friends Judd Mortimer Lewis.

It is good, keep it up, I hope you make a fortune, (I may want to make a borrow later) with the assistance of Mike Maney or Calahan you could do so easily and quickly—on payer.

"Shall the charter reported by the Charter Commission to the City Commission of the City of Mexia, Texas, on the 27th day of May, 1924, and which had been prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected by the qualified voters of the city of the 18th day of March, 1924, be adopted as the charter of the City of Mexia, Texas, as contemplated and authorized by the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, including Chapter 147, Acts of 1918, Regular Session?"

Section 2. That the polling places and presiding officers of said election shall be, respectively as follows: the polling place shall be at the City Hall, in the City of Mexia, and W. B. Kendrick is hereby designated as presiding officer.

Section 3. That said election shall be held under the provisions of Chapter 147, Acts of 1918, Regular Session, and all persons qualified to vote in said City under the laws of this State regulating general elections shall be allowed to vote.

Section 4. That the manner of holding said election shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas, regulating general elections, when not in conflict with the provisions of the law hereinabove referred to.

Section 5. All voters desiring to adopt a charter so prepared and reported by the Charter Commission shall have printed on their ballot the following:

OFFICIAL BALLOT

"For the adoption of the Charter prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected on the 18th day of March, 1924, and which was reported by said Charter Commission to the City Commission of the City of Mexia on the 27th day of May, 1921."

And those opposed shall have on their ballots the following:

"Against the adoption of the Charter prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected on the 18th day of March, 1921, and which was reported by said Charter Commission to the City Commission of the City of Mexia on the 27th day of May, 1924."

Section 6. That the action of the aforesaid Charter Commission in calling the election for the purpose hereinabove stated, and in all other respects with reference to the framing and submitting of such proposed charter, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the said Charter Commission, or the members thereof, shall ratify and confirm all things done by the present City Commission of the City of Mexia, Texas, with respect to the matters and things dealt with in this ordinance, and shall make the same their act and deed by subscribing their respective names hereunto under the caption, "APPROVED BY CHARTER COMMISSION," and such names as so subscribed shall be published as a part of this ordinance.

Passed and approved this the 27th day of May, 1924.

MRS. R. P. WARD CELEBRATES HER 75TH BIRTHDAY

The many friends of Mrs. R. P. Ward look forward from year to year with happy anticipation to her birthday which falls on June 19th, for Miss Mary Ward always plans such delightful entertainments for these occasions, and the party on Thursday of last week celebrating the 75th birthday of her mother was as usual a most enjoyable affair. Some thirty guests gathered at the hospitable home on E. Palestine St. at 5:30 o'clock, and were seated on the porch, which had been made more attractive with pink roses and garden flowers in blue and white.

For more than thirty years Mrs. Ward has been denied the privilege of church attendance, and it was a great pleasure to her and other shut in friends who were present to hear Rev. W. B. Andrews read from the 18th chapter of John and comment in his matchless manner on these inspiring passages of Scripture. Old-fashioned hymns were sung, which were joined in heartily by all those in attendance.

Another outstanding feature of the evening was the music rendered by the Sumpter Street School Orchestra—Robert Travis, Gene Womack, Tom Morales and Mack Walters under the direction of Mrs. Ray Akin, pianist. All the numbers were well received, as was the reading by Little Miss Mary Edith Forrest which was heartily applauded.

Dainty refreshments of chicken salad, deviled eggs, wafers, angel food cake iced in blue and punch was served. Favors were corsages of sweet peas.

Those enjoying Miss Ward's hospitality were the following: Mesdames W. B. Andrews, J. B. Dost, J. R. Redden, M. B. Kemp, R. E. Steele, F. E. Forrest, A. A. Steele, T. Bennett, T. A. Griffith, G. W. Kincheloe, J. S. Groover, W. A. McSwane, Jennie Buckner, Lila Peyton, John R. Corley, M. S. Read, J. B. Mathis, Lewis, Geo. Means, C. L. Watson, C. E. Gibbs, M. E. Wilder, and M. M. Carter.

Greetings or gifts were also received from other friends who were unable to attend—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Unsbaum, now in Los Angeles, Mrs. H. E. Ellis, and Miss Ellis of Denison, Miss Carrie Everett of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wood of Greenville, and Mesdames F. P. Huchingson, Gray Forrest, Georgia Watson Bergeron, J. E. Hughes, Jack Womack, H. B. Stevens, T. F. Oates, Blake Smith, A. M. Stevens, T. A. White, David Murphy, John Sweatt, Misses Elsie Desenberg, Gertrude Newman, Lelia Conrad, Ione McSwane, little Misses Daisy Jane Naylor, Maxine Caroline Nussbaum, and Clara Elizabeth Stevens, Messrs. Emile Nussbaum, John Everett and Robert Storey.

Radio Sales Executive Reviews Broadcast Developments

Are Now Reaching Peak of Perfection in Service, Says E. E. Bucher.

New York—Recently vast improvements have been effected in both the broadcast transmitter and the receiver, says E. E. Bucher, Manager of the Sales Department of the Radio Corporation of America During the past year broadcasting stations have increased in number; the power and the radiating efficiency of many of them have been improved; and this, together with the marked progress made in the operating efficiency of the radiating receiver, has increased the reliable working range of the radio broadcast transmitter very materially.

The past year has witnessed the development of a group of radio receivers requiring neither aerial nor ground connections. These sets operate from a compact coil of wire placed inside the cabinet, making it possible to deliver a radio set to the home, complete and self-contained, ready for immediate operation.

Equally important have been the improvements effected in the design of radio receiving sets of the antenna type. New circuits have been developed whereby such sets become "non-radiating," giving greater sensitiveness and a degree of selectivity unapproached by former types of two-circuit and three-circuit receivers.

Sharpness of tuning has been increased so that substantially all broadcasting stations within range can be received individually without interference from others. This means that the programs of local stations can be eliminated if the broadcast listener so desires, and that out-of-town stations can be heard regularly no matter how near the listener is located to the local station.

Of equal importance has been the perfection in quality of acoustical reproduction. Astounding progress has been made in that direction, and thus we obtain more faithful reproduction of broadcasted voice and music.

Receiving sets having reached such a high degree of perfection, further improvements in the art will come principally from the broadcast transmitter. The use of Super-Power may be looked forward to, thus assuring a signal strength of sufficient intensity to swamp out the interferences commonly called "background noises," produced by sources other than the broadcast transmitter. It is conceivable that one such station can furnish programs the greater part of the year throughout the United States.

Radio is now established as one of the great industries of the Nation.

A. & M. Student Has Improvement On Machine Gun

SAN ANTONIO, June 23—Charles Schwab, a Texas A&M student, whose home is in Cuero, Texas, is a student also at the Summer Training Camp at Fort Sam Houston. Mr. Schwab is enthustiastic about military affairs and has recently completed an invention which is remarkable for its simplicity and ingenuity. The devise in question is a dial on which has been attached a venier, making it possible to read the graduations thereon in mils, down to one mil, (the mil is a unit of measurement to 1-6400 of a circumference.) This attachment is adapted for adjusting to the present machine gun in use in the army. Fore indirect fire the attachment is said to increase accuracy of machine gun twenty times.

Mr. Schwab gives credit to his professors, fellow students and military instructors for aid in perfecting his invention. All of the work thereon was accomplished in his spare hours at work shop at the Engineering Department of Texas A&M College Station. The invention has ben examined by high ranking officers of the army and is soon to be submitted to the War Department for test.

McADOO MEN SAY WILL FIGHT ALL SUMMER

PURE OIL COMPANY PICNIC SATURDAY A BIG SUCCESS

ONE THOUSAND EMPLOYES OF COMPAY ATTEND

Many Novel Features Amuse Big Crowd

Bathing Revue Was 'It'

Ball Game And Dance Also Features.

The intermittent showers Saturday failed to put a damper on the Pure Oil picnic held at the Reunion Grounds Saturday, June 21st. Starting with the ball game between the office team of the Pure Oil Company at Tulsa and the Pure Oil Company team from the McKie lease at Powell and ending with a dance at the Club house at the Reunion Graunds the picnic was a big success.

The ball game which was played at League Park ended 8-2 in favor of the local boys. The game was close until the last half of the eighth when with the McKie team leading 3-2 the Tulsa defense blew up and the local Pure Oilers scored 5 runs. A good sized crowd witnessed the game which was marked by good-natured rooting for both teams.

Following the ball game the crowd journeyed to the Reunion Grounds the remainder of the day was spent. In the neighborhood of a thousand of the Pure Oil Company employes, their families and friends were present to enjoy the barbecue dinner furnished by the Company. The dinner was preceded by an address of welcome by Mayor Watson.

The afternoon was taken up by various races and contests. Swimming races, diving contests, tug of war, egg race and a pie eating contest furnished interest and amusement throughout the afternoon. The big event of the afternoon however, was the bathing girls revue. This event had been looked forward to all week and competition for a place as one of the judges was unusually keen. The chagrin of the judges was only surpassed by the laughter of the assembled audience, when eleven "piccannies" of all shades of darkness from dusk to midnight, arrayed in many colored one piece bathing suits and carrying Japanese parasols, promenaded the walk from the Club House to the Bath House Prizes for the winner of each event were provided by the commitee in charge of the entertainment.

The closing event of the day following the "Battle Royal" in which "Fast Blac" one of Mexia's colored gentry established his supremacy over the other four contestants, was the dance at the Club House. Music was furnished by the Elks Orchestra and the dancing was from nine till twelve. The floor was crowded from start to finish and a good time was certainly had by all.

This was first annual picnic under the management of the Pure Oil Company and it was pronounced such a success that the employes are all looking forward to its repetition next year.

ELECTRICAL ARCH FUND HUGHES PARK GROWS

June 23, 1924.

Mr. W. K. Boyd,
News Publishing Company,
Mexia, Texas.
Dear Sir:

I take great pleasure in attaching herewith my check in the sum of ten dollars to be applied to the fund which you are raising for the purpose of building a memorial arch at the entrance to Hughes Park.

The generosity and public spiritedness of Mr. Jessie Hughes and family is unprecedented in the annals of city building.

In giving this beautiful park and equipment to Mexia they have placed within the reach all Mexia's children, and generations yet unborn advantages for healthful and joyous recreation and this is a splendid example of unselfishness and loyalty born of love for the city they have adopted as their home.

It is therefore not only proper but eminently fitting that the citizens of Mexia show their appreciation by the erection of an entrance arch that for permanence in construction and beauty of design will be in keeping with beautiful grounds presented by Mr. Hughes.

CROWD GREETS DR. YOUNG SUNDAY NIGHT

"Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon" were the words of the text from Isaiah, which constituted the heart of Dr. Young's message to a large audience Sunday night at the Revival at the Central Presbyterian church. Practically every available bench and chair in the house was filled before the sermon began. The singing was enthusiastic. "There is power, power wonder working power in the blood of the Lamb" was the rousing chorus sung before the sermon. Mr. Croxton sang a negro spiritual so typical of the deep religious convictions of the worship of the earnest colored people, the selections being, "Deep River."

Dr. Young announced as his subject for Monday night "The Lion in the Way." A large delegation is expected from Wortham for Monday night. Wednesday night Teague is sending a delegation. At the Sunday night service delegations were present from many of the nearby towns and were heartily welcomed.

Dr. Young cited the fact that all men are seekers. In the days of the Covered Wagon they sought gold. He said men sought silver, health. But he said men were never satisfied until they found Christ. Like the man tossing up the valuable diamond on the deck of a vessel until in his carelessness he dropped it into the sea to be lost forever, he said that men had been playing with life and acting as if they were going to live a thousand years and could do as they pleased. But he said such was not the case. He told how Sam Jones was sitting in the hotel one day talking with his brother, apparently in good health. He looked at him and he was gone in an instant of time.

The text also pointed out that the Lord must be sought while he may be found. Dr. Young said that there was a danger line in a man's life. When this was crossed he could never be reached for God again because he had become callous to the appeal and had lost the desire. God himself said, "Ephraim is joined to his idols, let him alone." He said that the Lord declared to the man who for thirty years was impure and had become set in impure character to let him alone. It was God's death knell to men and women who had finally turned away from Him. Dr. Young said there were times when

WIMBLEDON, England, June 23.—Honored by opening the Wimbledon tennis championships on the famous center court before a crowd of 8,000 today, Vincent Richards of New York overwhelmed O. E. Park of New Zealand winning in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0.

Only two games went to deuce, Richards making his opponent a present of the games he lost.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 23.—It was youth's day at Wimbledon, with young "Vinnie" Richards of New York, the popular favorite in the men's singles, and plaudits of the crowd as play began in the championship tennis tournament today.

Suzanne Lenglen was as almost unpopular as Miss Wills was a favorite with the spectators, but the French girl was the choice over the American champion to win the women's singles.

The weather was fair and the courts fast as play started.

Some Folks Are Never Satisfied

BALBOA, C. Z., June 23.—The lady, who, when rescued from a ship wreck and taken aboard a freighter demanded a suite on the latter because she had paid for one on the wrecked steamer, furnished perhaps the most amusement to "survivors" of the Pacific Mail liner, Columbia, Los Angeles to New York, which went aground Saturday on Cuna, Island, 300 miles from here.

The story was brought here by 97 passengers of the grounded liner when the transport Chaumont arrived. The Chaumont and two other vessels "rescued" the Columbia's passengers. There were no casualties.

Klan Issue About To Overshadow All Other Questions

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, WALDORF HOTEL, NEW YORK, June 23.—In the bitter struggle over the Klan issue, candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination have been submerged to second place in the minds of leaders and delegates on the day before the convention convenes.

So fierce has become the battle between the forces contending for and against an anti-klan plank in the Democratic platform that it was evident that the question must be settled before the party standard bearer can be picked.

Even the leading candidates only come in for incidental mention in the heated discussions of the Klan issue. McAdoo, Smith, Underwood, Cox, Davis—all are referred to primarily with regard to their position on the Klan and other issues.

The studied attempt of party leaders to make "clean government" the main issue of the coming campaign, has been all but thwarted. The report of the senatorial group which will form the basis for a plank denouncing the Republican administration was shoved into an inferior position along with the League of Nations, prohibition and other controvertial issues.

Leadership in the fight over the Klan issue, first raised by George E. Brennan, Democratic boss of Chicago, to check the candidacy of William G. McAdoo, today passed to Edward H. Moore, of Ohio, manager of the 1920 campaign for James M. Cox. Moore claims he already has 590 delegates pledged to support a plank denouncing the Klan by name in vigorous terms.

CALIFORNIA MEN ENLISTED FOR THE WAR

Ku Klux Klan Is Big Issue In Sight

Bryan' Is' For McAdoo.

Says Will Be Greatest Convention Ever.

NEW YORK, June 23.—In a speech to 200 delegates from California William G. McAdoo appealed to his followers to "stick to the last ballot." His appeal brought cheers from the crowd and there were cries of "we're here to fight all summer."

McAdoo declared: "I know you are here not to betray but to execute your trust and that victory is assured."

A survey of the pre-convention situation shows that McAdoo has 550 delegates.

The Klan question is becoming more and more bitter. Ed Moore of Ohio, who led he fight for Cox in 1920, is the leader of a faction wanting an anti-Klan plank in the platform, which condemns any organization that "undertakes to destroy free political action and fosters racial and religious hatreds, and pledges the democratic party to "oppose the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization which undertakes to control or interfere with free political action or due process of law."

William Jennings Bryan, who predicts the "greatest national convention in the party's history," is lined with McAdoo in the latter's fight to retain the leadership.

Underwood announced that he had prepared a resolution specifically naming the Klan and denouncing its methods. He is the first of the candidates to do so.

About one o'clock today the fire department was called to Judge White's residence. Judge White's Lincoln Sedan backfired as Mrs. Rome Rust was driving the car in the garage. The department made a ready response and put out the fire with chemical fire extinguisher with apparently no damage much to the car. Mrs. White stated there was no one there but her daughter, Mrs. Rust, and heself and the department was immediately called upon.

Dawn-Twilight Flight N. Y. To Frisco Being Done By Lieut Maughan Today

HOPPED OFF ON TIME

MITCHELL FIELD, New York, June 23.—Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan took off at 3:59 a. m. today in his third attempt to fly from New York to San Francisco between dawn and dusk.

The first rosy streaks of a warm, clear June day were just reddening the East when the army flyer shouted, "contact." There was a roar from the exhaust of his big Curtis plane and the pilot was off on his third attempt to span the continent dawn to dusk.

Maughan's schedule calls for stops at Dayton, St. Joseph, Mo.., Cheyenne and Salduro, Utah, for fuel and water.

The distance from Mitchell Field to Crissey Field, San Francisio, is 2,670 miles(and to make the flight in 19 hours, 19 minutes of daylight, the aviator must average 165 miles.

A broken gasoline line delayed his taking off for St. Joseph, Mo., the next stop in the flight.

Field mechanics said they believed they would be able to repair the line so that the deday would not defeat Maughan's attempt to span the continent before dusk.

"I experienced no mechanical difficulties," Maughan said.

Off Again—Hour Late

DAYTON, Ohio, June 23.—After approximately one hour's delay while mechanics repaired a broken gas line on his Curtis pursuit plane, Lieut. Russell L. Maughan hopped off from McCook Field at 8:15 a. m. today on the second leg of his flight across the continent with the sun.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 23.—Lieut. Maughan took off at 11:37 for Cheyenne. He arrived at 10:53, only 23 minutes behind schedule. He appeared weary but confident of making a successful flight.

Adair Writes Interesting Letter While Train Speeds, Offers To Chaperon Texas

By A. GARLAND ADAIR
ON BOARD THE TEXAS McADOO SPECIAL, Saturday, June 21.—It's still Eastward, Ho!

(By the time this reaches Mexia, however, the delegation will be in the Convention City. A Garland Adair, representing the Mexia Daily News, one of the few papers in Texas to have a special correspondent present, will be quartered at the hotel Imperial. Any citizen of Mexia or of the Sixth Congressional district of Texas who want seats in the convention are urged to see Mr. Adair, who will be glad to help out all he can. Also, if any citizen of the home communities have friends who are in New York, if they are informed to apply for assistance to members of the Texas party at the Hotel McAlpin, they should not have any great trouble gaining entrance.)—Ed. Note.

We are leaving scenes along the Wabash and with the memory of new mown hay in our nostrils are moving on to new fields of real conquest. Just what the results will be future historians will have to chronicle.

Members of the McAdoo special from Texas are still enthusiastic for their choice for the Presidential nomination, but it don't look much like a McAdoo victory this early and this near the scene of the enemy. Of course, the Texas delegates are tied and will stand "for McAdoo" until the motion is made to make it unanimous for whatever be the choice. Not everybody will vote to make it unanimous, however, especially if a wet nominee is determined upon as favorite.

Heavy rains fell along the line of travel of the Texas train Friday afternoon and evening. Whether that was an indication of the kind of convention that the Democrats are going to attend cannot be said. At any rate, from newspapers of this section, picked up along the route there is a mighty movement to return to "the good old days of saloon misrule." Of course a lot of it is propaganda and the Republican scouts are trying to inject all the division possible in the ranks of the Democratic party. Republicans are great designers and schemers and keep a hand on the public pulse on many issues. They know that if they can get the Democrats to go wet, after they went dry, that the majority of citizens will favor their party and their candidate under the circumstances.

A. C. ADAIR WRITES INTERESTING LETTER

The Convention is to meet in the home of Tammany Hall. Tammany has long controlled the politics of the City of New York but has not been so successful in the State. There was a time, when there was no West and South of Power that Tammany was a formidable part of the Democratic political leadership of these United States. It is not feared as a dominant factor at the Convention but will be heard and seen nevertheless.

In 1876 the hosts of Democracy gathered to purge the nation from grafters who occupied exalted positions in the land. This time the great convention is to consider the same subject. In 1876, after Republican misrule, the Republicans themselves pointed the finger of rebuke and scorn at those guilty of selling out for self and sent some of them to prison. The situation is more alarming now, however, for the Republicans are shielding those guilty of using a public trust to advance their own interests. The condemnation of the democrats is hurled at Congressmen, Senators, Ministers and Members of the President's cabinet while the party of which these are members is permitting them to go unpunished and yet honored.

Developments within the next few days at Madison Square are expected to reveal that the Democrats are of the same mind as the fallen Chieftan, Woodrow Wilson. Woodrow Wilson was given a mighty ovation in 1920 at San Francisco. He will be given a greater one in 1924 at New York. From the very opening session, the principles that he stood for will be present with growing power.

As New York City is approached there is a very obvious difference between this delegation from the one that attended the San Francisco meeting. It is an almost entirely new delegation. Only a few faces familiar in Texas politics at that time are present on this train. The San Francisco special carried a distinguished party of venerable men who had rendered Texas and the Nation valiant service in the past. The New York bound train carries many practically unknown members of the party who are to render valiant service in the future. Apparently there are no Big Bears here but plenty of Tu Bits. That is they will be Tu Bits, maybe.

The most rabid anti-Klan talk that I have ever heard has been made on this train. These talks have not been whispered but of the open kind. It seems that there are more against the Klan on the train than there are for the Klan, if noise counts.

In 1920 a poll was taken of the stand of the delegates on the Governor's race. This time there has been no such poll taken, but the real dope is that Felix D. Robertson is far in the lead.

In 1920, the Governor of Texas, William P. Hobby, was on the train as a delegate. This time the Governor of Texas has gone ahead to the Convention city, having been made a delegate but refused to accept.

In 1920 there was a Lone Star flag on the train and there was a big hullaboo of folks for McAdoo. All along the route his friends greeted and cheered the McAdoo Special. This time the flag was forgotten but one will be obtained from the New York Texas club in New York and not a single party has met the train to cheer for McAdoo and to encourage his election.

In 1920 the train went west thru a land of hospitality and friends. This time the train is going to the cold and effete East where the line up is inimical to the views of Texas ans on the delegation.

GUSHERS MAKE IT THREE STRAIGHT FROM SURGEONS

MEXIA TAKES A PITCHERS BATTLE FROM TEMPLE 3-2

By HECK

One of the greatest pitching duels ever staged at Nowlin park was handed the fans Sunday when Rankin Johnson and Jeffries locked horns in a battle that went twelve rounds before Rankin was downed by two rank errors by Lacy and McElwee and to Rankin I want to hand the palm for pitching one of the best games I have ever seen and I have lamped a plenty. Jeffries pitched great ball also and deserved to win and I am not taking any laurels away from him by what I say of Rankin, but Jeff received support from his mates that was of the most brilliant sort while the error column tells much of what Rankin was up against. Jeff had the Surgeons on his hip and no mistake and Rankin had the Gushers eating out of his hand nearly all the way. Well, anyhow the Gushers won and the crew of Skipper Fowlkes deserves all the good things that can be said of them. Mexia tallied their first runs in the third frame when Jefferies crossed up the league and slammed a double down the third base line. Roy Storey dropped Geppert's fly after a nice run but he should have caught it in his hip pocket. Fowlkes sacrificed. Butler popped to McElwee and two were down when Ned Seely singled to center scoring the Squib and Jeff. The Surgeon annexed their only two counters in the fifth after two were out on an infield hit by Rich and doubles by Lacy and Johnson. The game rocked along with the count knotted and everybody settled down to watch a long endurance contest between two crack flingers who refused to weaken. The Surgeons threatened in the seventh when Leedy ran into right field and snagged Wren's short fly retiring the side and in the twelfth Lacy singled and was sacrificed to second by Johnson and it again looked tough but Bryan made two great catches of drives from the bats of Lance and Wren and no further damage resulted. The Gushers had many chances to score but Johnson pitched about the smartest ball in the pinches that one will see in many a day. In the second frame Seely and Jones singled in succession to open the round and we all expected the fireworks to begin right pronto when Bryan sacrificed both runners into scoring position. Harding hit a weak fly to right and Leedy took three cuts at three outside the bags with but one out but McElwee took Geppert's grounder and threw Harding out at the plate and Fowkles skied to Wren. Just to show us that he was getting right, Johnson whiffed Jones, Bryan and Harding in succession in the eighth and fanned seven of nine strikeouts in the last four innings. Geppert opened the twelfth with a single to left. Fowlkes laid down a perfect bunt and Lacy pegged wild to first pulling McElwee off the bag. Butler bunted down the third base line and Johnson made a great play to first and McElwee dropped the ball. Seely popped out to McElwee and the game should have been over but for boots. Ted Jones then drove a long fly to Wren and the Squib beat the throw to the plate for the winning tally. The game was played in two hours flat which shows that umps Price kept the clubs hustling and the whole twelve rounds were played without a question on any decision. The Gushers handled fift-eight of their fifty-nine chances perfectly. Harding getting the only boot when he attempted a one handed catch of Geppert's assist on McElwee's grounder. Leedy took Rich's grounder following the boot and completed a fast double play to Harding. Geppert, Leed, Jones and Jeffries handled their twenty-one assists perfectly and many were of the most brilliant sort while Bryan did a real days work in center.

YOU CANNOT BE TOO PARTICULAR

HOUSTON, Texas, June 23.—Miss Eunice Heavenhill, assistant bacteriologist in the city laboratory, has broken the news to many persons bitten by dogs that they would have to take the Pasteur treatment.

Now she's trying her "own medicine."

As she was examining the head of a small dog that had bitten some persons, she scratched her hand on a tooth. Examination revealed that the dog was mad.

T. A. GOSSIP

By HECK

The joyful news to the fans is that Sanders will leave the hospital in a few days and will be seen on the mound again by the middle of July and it is hoped that the Gushers will be up there among top notchers so Sandy can step in help them over the hill.

Tiner is due to hit the hill most any day now and he has whispered it to me that his arm is "ken as a briar." With Tiner taking his turn on the mound and in anywhere near his condition and effectiveness of last season the Gushers will be hard to head in race for the second section flag.

Tiner was one of the most effective pitchers in the league last season and along with Carl Hill was probably the most worked out of turn pitcher in the loop—he and Carl were worked overtime by Hub and it had much to do with us losing the rag.

Tiner now has a new pair of shoes a brand new seersucker suit, plenty of socks N'everything and is ready to take the hill and put the Gushers out in front for the second half.

Looks like there is a shake up coming in the Gusher line up and while I know pretty well just where it will be I am not yet ready to tip it to you fans but you can look for at least two and maybe three new players in the lineup this week.

As a team the Gushers are not hitting enough to win games that the pitchers dotheir part in and while it is the pitcher part of the game to hold the opposition, still the balance of the club must do their share by giving the pitcher runs to work on and at this stage of the game the Gushers are not a run getting club and has too many runners stranded on the sacks waiting for the pinch knock to send them to the cash register.

Ned Seely carries the wallop of the club but he must not be expected to sock a homer every day or even every few days as home runs are scarce articles and while Ned will get many during the season the brunt of the Gusher attack should not be left on his shoulders.

Leedy looks like he has been ready to start his long distance hitting for several days but Gus can't seem to get into gear with his war club and is also "fishing" at a high and outsidie curves that makes him look bad at times. The troubles with Gus is that he is trying too hard to break his slump and thus falls an easy victim of a smart pitcher—and believe me there are several smart pitchers in this league today.

This is strictly a pitchers league this season and there have been many smart games turned in and it will get better from now on and the club that can get afew runs over the pan for their pitchers will be the club to grab the rag.

I think the Texas ssociation has three really smart pitchers and by that I mean thre pitchers that win by sheer pitching ability by the use of their head besides something to hang their hat on.

I consider Rankin Johnson, Carl Hill and Mike Schmid as the three really smart pitchers of the circuit—pitchers who pitch every ball with a purpose and pitchers who MAKE the batter hit the ball that they intend for them to hit.

A well known umpire of this loop told me a while back that Carl Hill pitched the best game he had ever seen a short time ago and that Carl just naturally made his opponents hit the ball he wanted them to hit and beat them easily.

I don't know how many of you fans nticed it but the game that Rankin Johnson pitched Sunday against Jeffries was a masterly pitched game and I believe one of the best I have ever seen. Johnson is a really smart pitcher and like Carl Hill gets the fewest runs of any pitcher in the league to work on and must therefore pitch his best every inch of the way. A small piece of mud, a torn seam, a bruised cover or most any little thing on the ball that the average fan does not even notice much less think of means much to Carl and Rankin and they use them to perfection and it is perfectly within the rights of a pitcher—especially if he is smart enough to know tohse things.

How many times have you seen Carl deliver a perfect ball for the opposing batsman to bunt when it is just what the batsman wants to do? How many times have you noticed that Carl either goes to the right or the left of the box and handles the bunt and cuts down the advance runner and thus break up the sacrifice game? How many of you fans have ever got the idea that Carl "pitched" the ball so that the batter would bunt just where Carl wanted him to bunt so Carl could cover the play and get the advance runner? This is the big reason why Carl has anywhere from eight to as high as fourteen assists a game.

Johnson and Schmid are using their heads the same as Carl and it is worth the price of the game just to watch a battle of wits between these pitchers and errors invariably have much to do with any of these getting beat.

Roy Storey is not setting the league afire with his work in the out field and during the series just closed with Temple here he booted five plays in center field and every boot had something to do with putting Gusher runs over the pan. Maybe Roy Roy can hit but he sure looks bad in the field.

Squib Geppert beat Tiner in their sensational pool tournament at the Elks Club and now Willie Hoppe will have to get a new teacher since Tiner has lost the championship belt.

GRADUATE NURSE TELLS HOW TANLAC HELPED MANY OF HER PATIENTS

SEATTLE NURSE IS FIRM BELIEVER IN TANLAC AND RECOMMENDS IT.

"From my long experience as a professional nurse, I do not hesitate to say I consider Tanlac the most efficient and natural stomach medicine and tonic to be had. It is undoubtedly nature's most perfect remedy," is the far-reaching statement given out for publication, recently, by Mrs. I. A. Borden, 425 Pontius Ave., Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the National Temperence Hospital, Chicago.

"I have used Tanlac exclusively for seven years in the treatment of my charity patients," said Mrs. Borden, "and my experience has been that for keeping the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning properly, and for toning up the system in general, it has no equal.

"About a year ago I had a lady patient who could not keep a thing on her stomach fifteen minutes, not even water. I prevailed on her to try Tanlac and after the sixth bottle she could eat absolutely anything she wanted without the slightest bad after-effects.

"I had another patient who simply could not eat. I got him started on Tanlac and by the time he finished three bottle he was eating ravenously and able to work.

"These two instances that are typical of the wonderful merits of the medicine. My confidence in Tanlac is unlimited."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 40 million bottles sold.

FIREPROOF GYM BUILDING FOR A&M COLLEGE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, June 23.—Contract for a modern fireproof gymnasium to provide basketball courts, facilities for corrective physical training, officers for the athletics staff and pressing rooms for all athletes of the A. & M. College of Texas has been let to the Johnson Construction Company of Waco and work will begin next week, James . Sullivan, business manager of athletics has announced. With the accommodations that it will afford, A. & M. athletes will have opportunities for physical training and athletic competition not surpassed by the students of any other institution.

The walls of the building will be of brick, the roof of concrete and steel and the courts will have a maple floor. Seating stands will also be of concrete and will accommodate 3000. To supplement this capacity several hundred temporary seats can be provided for the more important games. Provision is also in the plans of the building for a later construction of balconies that will accommodate 2000 more persons.

Equipment will be added to the building for carrying out the enlarged program of physical training which has been charged to the newly organized department of physical education of which H. H. House, former assistant coach, has been made head. Compulsory physical training has been included in the A. & M. scheme of education for a number of years but the necessary gymnastic facilities have been lacking to enable the greatest effectiveness.

The new building will be erected on the site of the frame shack that has served as a gymnasium for many years. Professor E. B. LaRoche is the architect of the structure. It will be officially known as the Athletic Field House.

NOTICE.

Sealed bids will be received up to 5 o'clock p. m. of July 1st, 1924, by the City of Mexia for the paving of alleys in said city.

Noted Specialist Tells Smokers To Beware of Cancer

By H. V. MARTIN,
International News Service Special Correspondent

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 19.—If you are smoking twenty or more cigarettes a day—

Or ten or twelve cigars—

BEWARE

Carcinoma of the stomach will get you, if you don't watch out!

There is more Carcinoma (cancer) of the stomach amoung men than women, remarks Dr. Joseph L. DeCourcy Cincinnati specialist. This statement, he said, was proved by statistics compiled by leading physicians and surgeons in Europe and America.

"The reason for this," he announced, "is that the men frequently use nicotine to excess. Once in a great while we hear of a woman who does likewise, but, so far, the vast majority of the ladies are just playing around with ciragettes, trying to acquire a taste, so to speak, like a man eating olives. They are in no innate danger from this form of cancer.

"Smoking and chewing tobacco, in moderation, will not hurt anyone," continued Dr. DeCourcey. "But when a fellow burns up a pack of cigarettes every day and another reduces about a dozen cigars to 'butts,—watch out! The time is coming when he will be on his back in a hospital."

When Surgery Is Needed

In deep seated cancer, as in the stomach, surgery, according to Dr. DeCourcy, is the only cure. He discourges the use of radium in such cases, declaring there is danger of it destroying the glands in the stomach.

"I believe that radium and the X-ray are valuable in treating ulcers and cancers that the not deep-seated," he says. The treatment of cancer in general is advancing; we now have sufficient implements at hand to attack cancer of any type in any locality.

"Radium is of use in carcinoma of the crevix, glandular carcinoma of the inoperable type, etc. In the treatment of skin cancer, the post-operative treatment of breast carcinoma and so on, X-ray thereby is of decided value.

"These two implements, however, must still be considered as adjuncts to surgery. Enough time has now elapsed to have decided their valuation in cancerous conditions. That they are of decided value when used with precision, and judgement cannot be denied, yet, how often is their use abused both to the detriment of the patient and the medical profession as a whole.

Radium Endangers Glands

"Surgery, I repeat, still stands foremost in the treatment of carcinoma of the stomach. Fortunately a large percentage of stomach cancers occur close to the movable pyloric end. Were this not the case the mortality of stomach operation would be prohibitive. Thelymphatics are also grouped about the stomach in such a way as to make their complete removal comparatively easy. I don't believe that even the strongest advocates of radium or the Roentgen rays would consider their use prior to surgery in operable carcinoma of the stomach. Damage to the adrenals, pancreas and various glands is apt to result from their use."

Presiden Ulysses S. Grant's death was due to cancer of the tongue, brought on by over-indulgence in big black cigars, declares the specialist. "The human body," Dr. DeCourcey stated, absorbs nicotine like a sponge."

Smokers should take a Turkish bath and then observe the nicotine coming out of the skin, he said.

"Maybe that'll teach them to go slow on tobacco," Dr. DeCourcey observed.

Kindergarten And Grade Work Being Taught Texas U.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 23.—Expert demonstration in kindergarten and grade teaching is being done in connection with summer school work at the University of Texas during the first six weeks. Select groups of Austin children have been enrolled in these demonstration classes, and the observation work supplements the courses given in theory. The best demonstration teachers obtainable have been secured for this work, which counts as credit on University degrees.

There are 29 children enrolled in the kindergarten work, with 19 teachers taking the theory course. Miss Mary King Drew, supervisor of the Dallas kindergarten normal school, is both lecturer and demonstrator in this department. The enrollment in the first grade numbers 20, with 125 teachers taking the theory course. Mrs. T. W. Robertson, teacher in the Waco public schools, gives the demonstrations. Miss Lorene Patty, also from the Waco schools gives the demonstration work in the second and third grades, with 24 pupils enrolled. Miss Nina Glass, principal of the Sanger Avenue School, Waco, gives the theory lectures for all three years' work.

Theory in the junior school, composed of the sixth, seventh and eight grades is given by Walter D. Cocking, director of junior education, San Antonio. Merrill Bishop, director of English studies, San Anotoio junior high schools; Miss Stella Q. Smith, teacher of mathematics in Ralph Waldo Emerson Junior high school, San Antonio, and John Bennett Watkins, teacher of science, senior high school, Austin, are doing the demonstration work in the junior school, with an average enrollment of 24 in each grade. T. A. Gullett, principal of the Allen junior high school, Austin, is principal of the demonstration school.

Big Crowd Greets Dr. Young Sunday

God was nearer than others. In times of sorrow. He related how as a child he came home one day and found his three little brothers sick with carlet Fever. Their throats were all swelled. He helped his mother care for them. One day when he looked at the smallest little fellow he was gone. He went out under the stars to talk to God. Never before had God seemed so near. And so had it been in the life of many men and women in the time of sorrow. Then the preacher said that in times of revival such as now in Mexia, the Lord was near. He said Jesus was very near. He could almost see Him walking up and down the aisles of the church.

While man forgives a few times God's frogiveness and mercy was marvelous. Infinity could not measure its vastness, he said. But he declared that the man or woman who left the pathway and wandered far away from God like the prodigal must like this prodigal son, when they hit bottom and came to themselves come back every step of the way they had wandered away. God stood always ready and willing to receive them and forgive in mercy but they must come back. The saddest part, the evangelist declared,, was that men and women waited until they hit bottom. Until their self respect was gone, their friends gone, their health gone, to come to themselves and start back to God.

When Dr. Young asked for response almost everyone in the house stood as desiring definitely to move nearer to God. The following is the copy of the decision card to be used in the meeting during the remainder of the week, giving each person an opportunity to make some definite decision for Christ. The card has the following three propositions:

A. I confess my sins and accept Christ as my Savior.

B. I rededicate my life to Christ.

C. I desire to unite with the (name of church preferred to be filled in) Church.

At the morning theater meeting a large gathering of people heard Dr. Young preach on the theme, "Christian Certainties." He declared that, All were sinners, all ought not to have sinned, all could receive pardon and salvation in Christ Jesus, these were great Christian Certainties.

Rev. Joe Jeffers, pastor of the First Baptist church, will sing a solo tonight at the service at the church. Mr. Croxton who was called home on account of the death of his wife's father will return in time to take charge of the singing Tuesday morning at the Palace Theater. Rev. Aubrey will lead the singing tonight.

Roy Flynn returned from Waxahachie on the noon train today. Mrs. Flynn and her daughter, Dorothy will remain for several days visit withe her mother.

New Open Champ Won Despite Strain

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 18—A hippocket size "pro" is our new open golf champ.

But what little Cyril Walker of Englewood, N. J., lacks in physique he makes up in gameness.

Few golfers ever achieved the open title under a mental handicap such as the diminutive star overcame.

One of a field of 84 crack professionals and amateurs who met in championship play over the long and difficult course at Oakland Hills in June, Walker drew a late starting time for the closing day's play.

As a result, throughout the entire nine holes of his round, he was subjected to a handicap which has beaten many a famous golfer. He knew just what he had to beat.

Every time Walker was in trouble, he had to figure:

"Jones is in with 300 and I've played so and so and if I miss this and take a par four on the next," etc.

The gallery was counting, too, with every stroke.

But little Walker plugged right ahead. A day before the tournament started, few had figured him as a strong contender. At the end of the first day's play he was up with the leaders, but it wasn't until the end of his morning round on the closing day that New Jersey "pro" loomed up as the darkest of dark horses, threatening Bobby Jones' title.

Walker's last nine holes were played with consummate courage, but there was one shot that sticks out, and which will go down in golfing history.

The sixteenth hole at Oakland Hills is a terror. It was the bane of existence to a majority of the field this year, and at the bottom of the water hazard which traps many a second shot lies a ball of Walter Hagen's, marking the spot where Hagen cracked and threw away his chances.

No. 16 is a nasty water hole, the hazard coming on the second shot. A long drive and a second shot equally long are necessary to effect a par four.

Walker had an advantage of one stroke over Jones at this point. Par golf would bring him in victor.

His drive was off to the right, badly placed. There was the green, with the treacherous water hazard intervening, a high wind whistling across the fairway. To the right of the green were some bunkers, to which Walker could play, chancing a five, and making of his stroke advantage, rather than risk six or seven from a sunken ball.

The new champion hesitated, fiddled with a mid-iron, then with a driving iron. Finally he set himself and played his shot straight for the pin. it soared over the yawning water and rolled and rolled, right up to the cup, stopping just eight feet short. Walker said never a word, sank the putt for a three and put the title in his pocket right then and there.

It is always a source of satisfaction to professionals when a "pro" takes the open title. It means so much money to him, a year's occupation as an exhibition player and other material advantages, whereas to an amateur it brings a little glory.

However, no amateur ever won the title twice in succession. Ouimet tried, Travers tried, Chick Evans tried Jones, finishing second, came closer than any of them.

This was Walker's first title. He was 23rd in last year's open, with a card of 314. In the professional golfers' championship that year he was eliminated by Jim Barnes, 8 to 6, in the third round.

Mr. L. S. Patterson,
Mexia, Texas.
Dear Pat:

In response to the suggestion in your ad I write you. The picture is fine. It must have been made in the hey-day of your young manhood, about the time of your promotion of the Opera Dodo and other amateur theatricals; when you advocated the use of the old time side saddles by ladies; when you wrote poetry and had the poems bound in leather at a trifling cost by the Roy Crofterrs and presented the treasure to the subject of your lovesick-dreams; about the time you played Beau Brummel to the teachers of your home town and fair and frolicsome maids of La Grange.

The advertising is good. In my humble opinion you could play up the jewelry business a little more with good effect and without loss of dignity to the advertising. I believe an advertising expert would approve of your method and could offer very little criticism. They would at least deal more gently with it than the above mentioned poems were dealt with in the hands of your friends Judd Mortimer Lewis.

It is good, keep it up, I hope you make a fortune, (I may want to make a borrow later) with the assistance of Mike Maney or Calahan you could do so easily and quickly—on payer.

JUST TO DECIDE A SILLY WAGER

HOUSTON, Texas, June 23.—"Send an ambulance to the 3500 block on Washington Avenue," came an excited voice over the phone one hot afternoon here recently.

Three drivers leaped from their chairs and three ambulances went clicking down the streets.

With a screech of brakes the three came to a stop. Two men were standing by the curb.

"Where's the accident?" one driver shouted.

"I don't know there is one" replied one of the men. Then he turned to his companion and handed him a $5 bill.

"You win. The little one got here first."

The three drivers report that they were tempted to create at least one patient to carry back.

OFFICIAL BALLOT

"For the adoption of the Charter prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected on the 18th day of March, 1924, and which was reported by said Charter Commission to the City Commission of the City of Mexia on the 27th day of May, 1924."

And those opposed shall have on their ballots the following:

"Against the adoption of the Charter prepared by the Charter Commission duly elected on the 18th day of March, 1924, and which was reported by said Charter Commission to the City Commission of the City of Mexia on the 27th day of May, 1924."

Section 6. That the action of the aforesaid Charter Commission in calling the election for the purpose hereinabove stated, and in all other respects with reference to the framing and submitting of such proposed charter, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the said Charter Commission, or the members thereof, shall ratify and confirm all things done by the present City Commission of the City of Mexia, Texas, with respect to the matters and things dealt with in this ordinance, and shall make the same their act and deed by subscribing their respective names hereunto under the caption, "APPROVED BY CHARTER COMMISSION," and such names as so subscribed shall be published as a part of this ordinance.

Section 7. A copy of this ordinance shall be sufficient notice of said election, and thirty (30) days notice of the time and place of holding the said election shall be given by posting certified copies thereof at the places designated for holding said election at least thirty (30) days prior to the holding of said election, and by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) full days from date of election.

Passed and approved this the 27th day of May, 1924.

MRS. R. P. WARD CELEBRATES HER 75TH BIRTHDAY

The many friends of Mrs. R. P. Ward look forward from year to year with happy anticipation to her birthday which falls on June 19th, for Miss Mary Ward always plans such delightful entertainments for these occasions, and the party on Thursday of last week celebrating the 75th birthday of her mother was as usual a most enjoyable affair. Some thirty guests gathered at the hospitable home on E. Palestine St. at 5:30 o'clock, and were seated on the porch, which had been made more attractive with pink roses and garden flowers in blue and white.

For more than thirty years Mrs. Ward has been denied the privilege of church attendance, and it was a great pleasure to her and other shut in friends who were present to hear Rev. W. B. Andrews read from the 18th chapter of John and comment in his matchless manner on these inspiring passages of Scripture. Old-fashioned hymns were sung which were joined in heartily by all those in attendance.

Another outstanding feature of the evening was the music rendered by the Sumpter Street School Orchestra—Robert Travis, Gene Womack, Tom Measles and Mack Walters under the direction of Mrs. Roy Allin, pianist. All their numbers were well received, as was the reading by little Miss Mary Edith Forrest which was heartily applauded.

Dainty refreshments of chicken salad, deviled eggs, wafers, angel food cake iced in blue and punch was served. Favors were corsages of sweet peas.

Those enjoying Miss Ward's hospitality were the followings: Mesdames W. B. Andrews, J. B. Best, J. R. Redden, M. B. Kemp, R. E. Steele, F. E. Forrest, A. A. Steele, T. Bennett, T. A. Griffith, G. W. Kincheloe, J. S. Groover, W. A. McSwane, Jennie Buckner, Lila Peyton, John R. Corley, M. S. Read, J. B. Mathis, Lewis, Geo. Means, C. L. Watson, C. E. Gibbs, M. E. Wilder, and M. M. Carter.

Greetings or gifts were also received from other friends who were unable to attend—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Uussbaum, now in Los Angeles, Mrs. H. E. Ellis, and Miss Ellis of Denison, Miss Carrie Everett of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wood of Greenville, and Mesdames F. P. Huchingson, Gray Forrest, Georgia Watson Bergeron, J. K. Hughes, Jack Womack, H. B. Stevens, T. F. Oates, Blake Smith, A. M. Stevens, T. A. White, David Murphy, John Sweatt, Misses Elsie Dosenberg, Gertrude Newman, Lelia Conrad, Ione McSwane, little Misses Daisy Jane Naylor, Maxine Caroline Nussbaum, and Clara Elizabeth Stevens, Messrs. Emile Nussbaum, John Everett and Robert Storey.

Radio Sales Executive Reviews Broadcast Developments

Are Now Reaching Peak of Perfection in Service, Says E. E. Bucher.

New York—Recently vast improvements have been effected in both the broadcast transmitter and the receiver, says E. E. Bucher, Manager of the Sales Department of the Radio Corporation of America During the past year broadcasting stations have increased in number; the power and the radiating efficiency of many of them have been improved; and this, together with the marked progress made in the operating efficiency of the radiating receiver, has increased the reliable working range of the radio broadcast transmitter very materially.

The past year has witnessed the development of a group of radio receivers requiring neither aerial nor ground connections. These sets operate from a compact coil of wire placed inside the cabinet, making it possible to deliver a radio set to the home, complete and self-contained, ready for immediate operation.

Equally important have been the improvements effected in the design of radio receiving sets of the antenna type. New circuits have been developed whereby such sets become "non-radiating," giving greater sensitiveness and a degree of selectivity unapproached by former types of two-circuit and three-circuit receivers.

Sharpness of tuning has been increased so that substantially all broadcasting stations within range can be received individually without interference from others. This means that the programs of local stations can be eliminated if the broadcast listener so desires, and that out-of-town stations can be heard regularly no matter how near the listener is located to the local station.

Of equal importance has been the perfection in quality of acoustical reproduction. Astounding progress has been made in that direction, and thus we obtain more faithful reproduction of broadcasted voice and music.

Receiving sets having reached such a high degree of perfection, further improvements in the art will come principally from the broadcast transmitter. The use of Super-Power may be looked forward to, thus assuring a signal strength of sufficient intensity to swamp out the interferences commonly called "background noises," produced by sources other than the broadcast transmitter. It is conceivable that one such station can furnish programs the greater part of the year throughout the United States.

Radio is now established as one of the great industries of the Nation.

A. & M. Student Has Improvement On Machine Gun

SAN ANTONIO, June 23—Charles Schwab, a Texas A&M student, whose home is in Cuero, Texas, is a student also at the Summer Training Camp at Fort Sam Houston. Mr. Schwab is enthustiastic about military affairs and has recently completed an invention which is remarkable for its simplicity and ingenuity. The devise in question is a dial on which has been attached a venier, making it possible to read the graduations thereon in mils, down to one mil, (the mil is a unit of measurement to 1-6400 of a circumference.) This attachment is adapted for adjusting to the present machine gun in use in the army. Fore indirect fire the attachment is said to increase accuracy of machine gun twenty times.

Mr. Schwab gives credit to his professors, fellow students and military instructors for aid in perfecting his invention. All of the work thereon was accomplished in his spare hours at work shop at the Engineering Department of Texas A&M College Station. The invention has ben examined by high ranking officers of the army and is soon to be submitted to the War Department for test.
